Profile

As a student of Business Administration, the idea of combining what I learned in the department with my passion for design led me to the UI/UX world. With my eagerness to learn new skills and improve myself, I want to become a designer who can create value in this field.

Employment

Nov 2024 – current

UI/UX Designer at YouReply

YouReply is a research company that assists researchers with their surveys. As a UI/UX design intern at YouReply, I helped identify user interface issues and used Figma to create solutions for both the participant app, website, and researcher interface.

Oct 2024 – Nov 2024

UI/UX Designer at Max FM

At MaxFM, there was an issue with the usability and design of their website. As a UI/UX intern, I collaborated with the graphic designer to transfer their design into Figma and worked on enhancing the site to make it more visually appealing and user-friendly.
